STEP 3: Apply for Financial Aid

To be eligible for this award, in addition to graduating from either Union County High School, Union Christian Day School, Union County Adult Education or a Union County Approved Home School Program with a high school diploma you must complete and satisfy all requirements on the FAFSA. After your aid is awarded, the Union County Tuition Scholarship will cover any remaining balance of tuition and fees that federal grants, state grants, and LIFE Scholarship do not cover in order for you to attend tuition free. Apply online at studentaid.gov

You must meet all qualifications for LIFE to participate in this program. Please note that books, incidental supplies, and any program related fees will be your responsibility.

STEP 4: Complete Admission and Financial Aid Process

After all requirements have been met, the scholarship will be added to your financial aid package for you to accept.
