

SC Parents – Info, Support, & Help for Parents & Families

Presented by the Safeguarding Our Youth:

A Collaborative Blueprint for Deflection and Recovery initiative

Who should attend: This training is ideal for child and family-serving professionals working across Chester, Fairfield, and Lancaster Counties, including those in juvenile justice, behavioral and mental health, child welfare, education, early childhood, law enforcement, and community outreach programs.

Overview: This engaging session is designed to showcase one of South Carolina's most comprehensive online platforms for caregivers, the SC Parents website, powered by Children's Trust of South Carolina. This interactive training will guide participants through the site's tools and resources to more effectively support families in Chester, Fairfield, and Lancaster Counties, especially those facing adversity and in need of community-based support.

By learning to navigate SC Parents, participants will gain skills that promote early deflection from crisis by connecting families with preventive services and support long-term recovery by fostering access to resources that promote stability, healing, and resilience.
